FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Turning Point Estate Services, LLC. Introduces A New Concept In Real Estate Services

Unique services accelerate sales and provide brokers and realtors with a competitive advantage

Wilton, CT (March 8, 2011) – Turning Point Estate Services, LLC, a CT-based, single source solution for those who face estate and personal property matters, announced today solutions that work in concert with agents, brokers and attorneys to implement and oversee services needed to prepare a home for market. Their comprehensive offering targets real estate brokers and agents as well as executors and trustees, estate and probate attorneys, and elder law attorneys in Connecticut and Westchester County, New York.

This turnkey program positions Turning Point Estate Services, LLC as the sole source for the real estate community by combining and coordinating a range of services, including:

- Personal property disbursal – packing & shipping, consignment & sales and charitable donation
- Home improvements - painting, repairs and debris removal
- Interior cleaning
- Grounds maintenance and landscaping

In today's market, real estate professionals are seeking ways to gain a competitive advantage. By leveraging Turning Point Estate Services' management, expedited property preparation, enhanced curb appeal and increased valuation, real estate agents and brokers possess a distinct advantage over the competition.
